

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
N.D. OF ALABAMA
2025 JAN 07

Hi Mrs. Haikala, how are you doing Madam? I would like to begin this missive by writing, (May God Almighty Bless, Prosper, With Green Pastures, Your Loved One And Yourself.) I merely wish you a glorious New Years of strength both Spiritually and Healthwise. The sole purpose for this epistle is to reveal how these state officials displayed such disrespect to the Civil Claim (Settlement Agreement And Release) avoidance of the expense of litigation. As you can espy, these state official took it upon themselves to deduct $2,000 from my PUNITIVE DAMAGE injunction relief and falsely stated that the $2,000 was for Court Order Payments when the Courts do not have on records any payments from this particular deduction from the state officials. A $941.60 payment was deduct and the ending balance of $1,059.65 was not and to date have not been transferred back to my inmate PMOD account. Furthermore, I was not allowed to order anything outside of an Correctional Canteen order, such as food/hygiene incentive package, clothing package and shoe order. To date, I am not allowed to receive funds from my loved ones/friends, because the State Officials have me on restrictions from receiving funds from society for no apparent reason and/or without penological justification to do so. As you can espy, your Magistrate Judge Ms. Stagi G. Cornelius merely directed and advised the state officials who knowing, willfully, and unconsciously took the $2,000 to stop withholding money from my account which they have conspicuously and pellucidly failed to do so to date. Proof is readily available. (Be Blessed Mrs. Haikala) Sincerely, Zachary Wilson
